

I disagree with keeping the Morse requirement for all classes of license as stated in this petition. Public safety can be served through the use of various modes that are not tested for. This petition is a thinly-veiled attempt at keeping an artificial barrier in place for entry to the Amateur Radio Service.